Subject: RE: CSXT, et al v. NS, et al - Discovery Deficiencies

Michael and all,

The link below contains a small supplemental production from CSX, which includes a couple documents inadvertently omitted from our May 12 production, as well as a small number of documents originally produced with privilege notations redacted. The password to access the production and log will be provided separately.

Please let me know if you have any trouble accessing the files.

Best,
Ashley
